Bloom's Questioning

Remember

1. Who are the main characters?
2. How did the boy react to the present when he first opened the box?
3. What was the first thing the dog wanted to do?

Understand

1. How do you think the boy feels when he sees the dog's disability?
2. Why do you think the boy reacts in this way?

Apply

1. Can you think of another story whereby a character has a disability?

Analyse

1. Why do you think the boy was sitting on the computer and not already outside in the sun?

Evaluate

1. Should the character have reacted to the present in this way? Why/Why not?
2. What do you think the message of the film is?

Create

1. What two questions would you ask the creators of this animation?

Suggested Activities

1. Write a set of instructions to teach people how to care for a pet.
2. Write a recount as the boy. Explain how you felt about the present at first compared to how you feel now.
3. Draw a comic strip that retells this story from the puppy's point of view.
4. Investigate the achievements of famous people with disabilities.
5. Make a fact file about a famous person who overcame a disability to achieve their goals.
